PROFILE

If you love classic heavy rock music than you can no longer afford to ignore Jackbox!

JACKBOX's music style is clearly rooted in the hard rock and the heavy metal characteristic of the 80's, but they successfully manage to defy a clear labeling and cannot be easily put in any typical music pigeonhole.

Still, even though none of band members would deny this close relationship with the 80's, JACKBOX sounds just like JACKBOX, with a clearly developed, unique sound of their own.

In a nutshell, JACKBOX has the songs that were forgotten to be written in the 80's.
